Is Revelation Good News or Bad News?

Apocalypticism and Violent Imagery

cosmic dualism

ethical dualism

temporal dualism

Seleucid ruler Antiochus IV Epiphanes

Domitian
Revelation as Political Resistance Literature

Case Study: The United States of America, Empire and Civil Religion

Revelation's counter-programme to imperial power and the dangers of civil religion:

1. The Reign of God and the Lamb
2. The Reality of Evil and Empire
3. The Temptation to Idolatry and Immorality
4. The Call to Covenant Faithfulness and Resistance
5. An Alternative Vision of God and Worship
6. Faithful Witness according to the Just and Nonviolent Pattern of Christ
7. Judgement and Salvation/The New Creation
Violence in the Context of Revelation's Critique of Empire

The Problem of Revelation’s Violent Imagery

The Myth of Redemptive Violence and the Problem of Divine Violence
Biblical Depictions of God and Their Reinterpretation in the Life of Jesus

Violence and Nonviolence in Revelation

Revelation and Universalism
Revelation, Violence and Empire (Karl Möller)

Reading Revelation Responsibly

Sources

